By Socially Speaking LLC In the spirit of another destined classic tome; educational lessons learned in kindergarten, this succinct, witty, creative, deceptively simple true gem of a book has earned a cherished spot on my keeper shelf forever! Author and valiant student and teacher of life, the spirited Martin Levin, provides important teachings for everyone, at every stage in life. His life lessons and business lessons are wrapped up in heartfelt, poignant anecdotes about the dog he rescues, Angel. As a dog lover myself, I totally get what an impact she has on Levin, but to generate a complete book and framework for management in four sections? Sheer genius, and what an impact on the world of startup entrepreneurship, if only this book were to be read and followed by more people! Go forth and read it, and go forth and implement it! While you're at it, reawaken your love for a good storytelling and your love for animals of all kinds, especially those that change our lives; for the better. Four Stars By Customer Good read. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A brilliant book for all managers and dog lovers By Bookman Martin Levin is a legend. In this brief but brilliant book, the winner of the Lifetime Achievement Award by the Association of American Publishers has distilled the many insights he gathered during his 40+ years as President of the Times Mirror Publishing Group, then as an attorney specializing in publishing, and as a lecturer at both Stanford and Yale. Managers at every level will find this work just as valuable as THE ONE MINUTE MANAGER and WHO MOVED MY CHEESE. And all readers will be both deeply touched and continually entertained by Levin's generous spirit and the honesty with which he shares his life as a husband, a widower, and eventually as a dog lover. If allowed, I would give this beautiful book 6 stars.

When 91-year-old legendary management guru Martin Levin decided to adopt a dog by the name of Angel, he thought he was in for an interesting experience, yet not a challenging one. It didn't take long for him to learn that he was wrong. Very wrong. Following one of the guiding mantras of his life to never stop learning, Levin found that each day with his dog brought new insights. Through interacting with Angel, he began to recall some personal adventures that added to this insight. And as it turned out, his journey led him toward realizing the Four Golden Rules of Management:
Rule 1: Trust and Leadership
Rule 2: Communication
Rule 3: Problem Solving and Decision Making
Rule 4: Perseverance In the end, Levin found that his Four Golden Rules of Management were so simple that even Angel understood them. Thus, if a manager can develop trust, it will lead to corporate excellence, provided he or she is able to communicate effectively, make the right strategic decisions, and, above all, persevere. Levin's book is one to entertain, inspire, and educate business executives (and dog lovers).
