Spinelli has little to no understanding of market/mixed/command economic effects on entrepreneurship, barriers to entry, nor does he understand that exigent changes to fiscal policy/MS supply and therefore decreasing interest rates/increasing national investments are not necessarily signals to enter markets half-baked with his juvenile go-getter attitude. This text is irresponsible, dangerous, and will negatively affect entrepreneurs with more fire than brains. Read Armen Alchian instead.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. New Venture Creation: Entrepreneurship for the 21st Century is about the process of getting a new venture started, growing the venture, successfully harvesting it, and starting again. The book presents the substantial body of knowledge about the entrepreneurial process in a pragmatic way through text, case studies, and hands-on exercises to help readers compress their learning curves, reduce their ultimate risk and pain, and allow them to gain more from their subsequent entrepreneurial experiences.
