This is the bombBy Marquis C JonesFrankly I've read a lot of books on building your business on social (and God knows I've purchased a lot of training courses and have been on bunches of webinars, but your book as well as training are set apart). When you have someone who shares their own success and how to's with real world and current examples you have a winner... Even before I have been able to completely implement some of this book's teachings in my own business, I have shared a few tips I learned with others and have a few clients willing to pay me to assist them,, how great is that?? A must purchase for anyone in any sector, market, or niche on social media! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. One of the most valuable books I own, and I own many! By R I This book is worth its weight in gold. Literally. Matthew Loop is not only a business and marketing genius, but a man of principle and purpose who truly cares making the world a healthier place. He consistently stays ahead of the curve and over delivers. I always avoided social media but realized it's a necessity in today's world. If we as natural health providers want to make more of a difference, Matthew's material and system is essential for raising the needed awareness. In fact, anyone looking to get their message to reach the most people and have the most massive impact need this book. It's practical, easy to read and loaded with useful info and insight. A wealth of knowledge at your fingertips that can be put into action immediately. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I am going to be RICH!!!!!!!!!! In six months I will do another review and I will update you on my success. This guy is the Tony Robbins of social media.
