Bastiaan van Apeldoorn : Transnational Capitalism and the Struggle over European Integration (RIPE Series in Global Political Economy) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Transnational Capitalism and the Struggle over European Integration (RIPE Series in Global Political Economy):

This book presents an analysis of the transnational social forces in the making of a new European socio-economic order that emerged out of the European integration process during the 1980s and 1990s. Arguing that the political economy of European integration must be put within the context of a changing global capitalism, Van Apeldoorn examines how European change is linked to global change and how transnational actors mediate these changes.

'An extremely useful intellectual tool for those who try to find answers about the tendencies presently operating in Europe.' Lucia Diaz Marroquin, Environment and Planning C: Government and Policy, 2004
